Wednesday July 17, 2019, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm

You have been invited to attend Collateral Matters, a roundtable discussion focused on real estate valuations and collateral risk. This is a high level, roll up your sleeves, thoughtful discussion with participants representing every stakeholder within the housing finance system.

We will explore the three pillars of the “iron triangle”- faster, better, cheaper as we discuss how to “reengineer the appraisal process”.

8:30 am to 8:45 am | Joan Trice, Allterra Group, LLC
Introduction: Overview of event objectives.

Data and Market Research

8:45 am to 9:15 am | Frank Gregoire, NAR
Know Before You Buy - a standardized form and disclosure to gather from the borrower at time of application. Ample discussion time will be available to amend any modifications to this proposal.

9:15 am to 9:45 am | Josh Walitt, Property Interlink
Field Inspection - a discussion on what data points are needed during the inspection process. What should the appraiser observe about the neighborhood? Josh will demonstrate process improvements in data collection and practical application.

9:45 am to 10:15 am | Lee Trice, Valuentric
Analysis and Report Writing-what national standard will be assigned to measuring a home? Are current quality ratings and condition ratings adequate? What training and experience is necessary? What data elements can be auto-filled? What oversight is necessary?

10:15 am to 10:30 am | Break

10:30 am to 11:00 am | Pete Carroll, Corelogic
Central Repository of Data- discuss ideas on how to leverage transparency and advanced collateral risk analysis using a real property database (public utility) to benefit all stakeholders

11:00 am to 11:30 am | Scot Rose, Class Valuation
Technology - some applications of technology that can assist the appraiser to be more efficient and drive a quality driven report

11:30 am to 12:00 pm | John Russell, ASA
What’s policy got to do with anything? A thoughtful discussion on policy and privacy issues and the ethos of a reformed housing finance system.

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm | Lunch
